41.121 EXHIBIT I
DSL-1075, NONIMMIGRANT VISA REFUSAL LETTER

United States Department of State

Washington, D.C. 20520

(Date)

This office regrets to inform you that it is unable to issue a nonimmigrant visa to you because you have been found ineligible under the section(s) checked below of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended.

☐ Section 214(b) – Requires an applicant for a nonimmigrant visa to establish entitlement to a nonimmigrant status under section 101(a)(15). You have not shown entitlement to nonimmigrant status under section 101(a)(15)( ) because:

   ☐ You have not shown that you have sufficiently strong family, social, or economic ties to your place of residence to ensure that your projected stay in the United States will be temporary.

   ☐ You have not shown that you are a student qualified to pursue a full course of study in the United States, and that you seek to enter the United States for the purpose of pursuing a full course of study at a recognized institution of learning.

   ☐

☐ Section 221(g) – Prohibits the issuance of a visa to anyone whose application does not comply with the provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act or regulations issued pursuant thereto. You have not presented all of the documentation necessary to issue you a nonimmigrant visa.

☐ Section 212(a)(7)(B)(i)(I) – Prohibits the issuance of a visa to anyone whose passport does not meet one or both of the requirements below. Your passport was found deficient because:

   ☐ It does not have sufficient validity.

   ☐ It does not authorize you to return to the country from which you came or to enter some other country in which you may reside.

☐ Section 212(a)( )( )( )( )

No further consideration can be given to your visa application unless at a later date you have new informaton or documentation to present.

Sincerely,

Consular Officer of the United States of America
